

Here's a budget estimate to account for attending both the Canadian Economic Association (CEA) Conference and the Canadian Macroeconomic Study Group (CMSG) Conference, traveling from Prince George, BC.

Estimated Budget Breakdown for Both Conferences

1. Conference Registration Fees

- CEA Conference: $350–$500
 - CMSG Conference: $250–$350
- Total: $600–$850

2. Travel Costs

- Flights: $900–$1,600 per round trip (round trips to different locations, depending on conference cities).
 - Local Transport: $50–$150 per trip = $100–$300 (airport shuttles, taxis, or public transit).
- Total: $1,000–$1,900

3. Accommodation

- CEA Conference: $200–$250 per night for 3–4 nights = $600–$1,000.
 - CMSG Conference: $200–$250 per night for 2–3 nights = $400–$750.
- Total: $1,000–$1,750

4. Meals and Incidentals

- CEA Conference: $60–$100 per day for 3–4 days = $180–$400.
 - CMSG Conference: $60–$100 per day for 2–3 days = $120–$300.
- Total: $300–$700

Grand Total for Both Conferences ranges from $2,900 to $5,200 depending on the conference locations and timing.