Please Note:

1. For some chapters selected portions will be covered as a part of the course material.
2. If a student misses a lecture for any reason, it is student's responsibility to obtain class lecture notes and other relevant material.
3. The online quizzes must be submitted by their due dates. They may also be submitted early. Only your top eight scores will count so you have two free passes. A missed quiz will count as one of your free passes.
4. There will be no make-up midterms.
5. If a midterm exam is missed, given proper documentation, 50% of the missed midterm weight will be transferred to the other midterm and the remaining 50% of the weight will be allocated to the final exam. Students must write at least one midterm exam.
6. All exams, midterms and final, are individual and closed-book.
7. Both the midterms and the final exam will consist of a mix of short answer questions, analytical problems, numerical calculations, mathematical derivations, true-false, multiple choice, and fill-in-the-blank questions, and will draw on material covered in the lectures.
8. Your grades on midterms will be posted on Moodle. Please immediately report to the instructor any discrepancy between the posted and actual grades.
9. Only the Registrar's Office can issue final grades. Hence, marks for the final exam will not be posted on Moodle.
10. You are encouraged to contact course instructor or course TA for any questions on the course material and outlines, evaluation scheme, and the final exam.

Artificial Intelligence (AI)

Use of generative AI is NOT allowed in this course, unless specifically authorized by the instructor. Please consult with the instructor if any clarification is needed. General guidance on the acceptability of using generative AI at UNBC can be found here.

Plagiarism

Plagiarism is a misrepresentation of information that can result in a misattribution of credit, up to and including representing someone else's work as your own. When you incorporate the words, ideas, graphics, or other products from someone else's work into your projects, you must give credit by providing a citation and reference to the source work. It is your responsibility to:

1. Familiarize yourself with and understand the information on plagiarism provided by the Academic Success Centre,
2. And the UNBC policy on Student Conduct, plagiarism and other academic offenses, as described in the UNBC Undergraduate calendar.
