

ECON 220: Global Economic Shifts

Term Project

Winter 2025

Objective

The objective of this term project is to deepen students' understanding of global economic shifts by researching and analyzing a specific topic. Students will work in pairs to produce a comprehensive report and deliver a presentation, demonstrating their ability to critically evaluate economic trends, policies, and their implications.

Project Guidelines

1. Group Formation

- Students will form groups of two.
- Each group will select one topic from the list provided below.

2. Report

- Length: 5–8 pages (excluding tables, figures, diagrams, and bibliography).
- Format: Double-spaced, 12-point font, 1-inch margins.
- Structure: The report should include the following sections:
 - Introduction: Background information and significance of the topic.
 - Literature Review: Summary of existing research and theories related to the topic.
 - Analysis: In-depth analysis of the chosen topic, including current trends, data, and case studies.
 - Discussion: Implications of the economic shift, potential future developments, and policy recommendations.
 - Conclusion: Summary of key findings and their broader significance.
- Bibliography: Properly cited sources using APA, MLA, or Chicago style.

3. Presentation

- Duration: 20–30 minutes.
- Format: Each group will present their findings to the class using visual aids (e.g., PowerPoint).
- Content: The presentation should cover the main points of the report, including the introduction, analysis, discussion, and conclusion.
- Q&A: Be prepared to answer questions from the instructor and classmates.

4. Suggested Topics

- The Impact of Digital Transformation on Global Labor Markets
- The Role of Cryptocurrencies in the Future of Global Finance
- Climate Change and the Transition to a Green Economy

7. Resources

- Access to academic journals, books, and reputable online sources.
- Guidance from the instructor during office hours or scheduled meetings.

8. Submission

- Reports should be submitted electronically via Moodle.
- Presentations will be scheduled during the final weeks of classes.

Additional Notes

- Collaboration is key. Ensure both group members contribute equally to the research, writing, and presentation.
- Start early to allow ample time for research, writing, and revisions.

Tips for Success

- Start early and divide tasks equally between group members.
- Use reliable sources such as Statistics Canada, academic journals, and government reports.
- Practice your presentation to ensure it fits within the time limit and flows smoothly.
